PARTNERSHIP PROCESS

1 CHOOSE YOUR PARTNERSHIP LEVEL

Partnership packages are designed to be a flexible framework for organizational participation, ensuring that each partner organization is able to maximize their impact at the IRF Summit.

2 FINALIZE YOUR PARTNERSHIP

After selecting a partnership level, you will sign a Partnership Agreement and send payment to the IRF Summit. The Summit will then send you a coupon code to register your representatives.

3 COORDINATE YOUR BENEFITS

Partners are invited to join the Summit Steering Committee and one of the four breakout track planning committees, where they can help directly shape Summit programming. Partners will also receive a packet explaining how to utilize all their other benefits.

CUSTOM ENGAGEMENTS

Partners may elect to add additional partnership opportunities on top of the benefits already included in their partnership package, such as sponsoring an after-hours party, a hospitality lounge, the live stream or Wifi, or even hosting their very own on-site side event.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Are partnerships customizable?

We encourage partners to tailor their participation in the Summit according to their organizational goals and priorities.

Do I have to be a partner to attend?

No—anyone interested in advancing international religious freedom is encouraged to attend whether or not they are affiliated with a partner.

Will partners receive complimentary tickets?

Partners each receive a certain number of comped tickets based on their partnership level. They may allocate these as they wish.

May I purchase additional tickets?

Yes—partners can request an exclusive coupon code discounting the cost of additional ticket purchases. The value of the discount varies based on partnership level, and must only be used for guests of the partner.

Please reach out to manus.churchill@irfsummit.org with any other questions.

How do partner representatives register?

The IRF Summit will send each partner organization a unique coupon code that may be used in lieu of the normal registration fee or applied as a discount to more or larger registration packages.

Can I suggest speakers without being a partner?

The IRF Summit always welcomes thematic and speaker recommendations from the community. However, as a partner-led event the Summit must emphasize partner priorities at every stage.
